

Dillon Gage Named Exclusive Distributor for Rand Refinery Metals Dealer to Be North American Distributor for Refinery's New Gold and Silver Minted Bars

ADDISON, TEXAS (May 21, 2013)...Dillon Gage Metals is pleased to announce that the Dallas-based international metals dealer has been appointed the exclusive North American distributor for Rand Refinery's new gold and silver minted bars.

For more than 90 years, Rand Refinery has established a reputation for integrity, reliability and quality. Dillon Gage Metals has honed its skills in the trading, marketing and international distribution of physical precious metals for almost 40 years. This combination will ensure the finest products and service for everyone who purchases the new bars.

As a further commitment to this new product line, Rand Refinery has introduced the RandPure™ trademark, which guarantees the traceability of metal from mine to consumer. In addition, many of the new products will be available in tamper-proof packaging with a serial number and Certificate of Authenticity.

"We couldn't be happier about this opportunity to partner with Rand Refinery and make their new gold and silver minted bars available to North American investors," says Terry Hanlon, president of Dillon Gage Metals. "It's an honor to be selected by a firm with Rand Refinery's reputation and that is held in such high esteem."

The Rand Refinery bars will be introduced exclusively to the North American market by Dillon Gage later this year. Dillon Gage, an international wholesaler of bullion and rare coins, will provide delivery details for the Rand silver bars when they become available.
