

Dillon Gage Metals Teams Up with Strategic Wealth Preservation Precious Metals Wholesaler Becomes Depository's Dealer

ADDISON, TX (June 23, 2015) –Dillon Gage Metals is teaming up with Strategic Wealth Preservation (SWP), a precious metals depository located in the Cayman Islands to offer SWP's clients ability to purchase and sell precious metals from Dillon Gage directly on-site.

With Dillon Gage Metals as the in-house, wholesale precious metals dealer the SWP's clients will be able to instantly:

1. Have access to Dillon Gage Metals' on-site inventory which can be traded efficiently and timely without the complicated logistics of cross-border transportation;
2. Have access to a two-way market in all four precious metals, allowing SWP's clients to acquire and liquidate their holdings; and
3. Have access to diverse geographic storage alternatives at Dillon Gage's wholly owned depositories, International Depository Services Group, located in Ontario, Canada and Delaware, USA

"Partnering with Dillon Gage Metals will provide our clients with straightforward access to diversifying accounts through precious metals investments," said Strategic Wealth Preservation's partner Shayne Howe. "We want to offer our clients the unique opportunity to store their metals in a facility close to home, but with all the benefits of being in an offshore jurisdiction. By offering both fully allocated and segregated general storage, as well as safety deposit boxes, we offer complete peace-of-mind to investors of all levels."

"We're very pleased to team up with Strategic Wealth Preservation in offering their customers easy access to buy, sell, trade and store precious metals as part of their overall portfolio diversification," said Dillon Gage Metals president Terry Hanlon. "This alliance is a win-win situation for Dillon Gage Metals and SWP, as both parties cater to precious metals market participants."

About Strategic Wealth Preservation

Strategic Wealth Preservation Ltd. (SWP) is a new purpose built precious metals storage facility located in the Cayman Islands. We are considered one of the premier precious metals storage facilities in the world and the only independently-owned, privately operated facility of its kind in the western hemisphere outside of North America.

SWP provides clients with fully allocated and segregated secure storage of their physical gold and other precious metals. Clients retain direct and complete legal ownership of their precious metal holdings while they are in our facility. Access to stored assets is available by appointment on 24-hours' notice.

SWP is housed within the impressive complex of Cayman Technology Centre (CTC), a brand new, purpose built, energy efficient space that has won awards for its innovation, beauty, sustainability, and energy saving design.

CTC is also home to one of the largest and most respected security companies in the Caribbean, adding to our own state-of-the-art security system and providing our customers with one of the safest and most flexible storage places in the world.

SWP has been designed by investors for investors to offer the most flexible and user-friendly experience possible in one of the world's most unique and desirable locations. Our Class 3 vault and state-of-the-art secured building is considered one of the very best in the world. Accepting new and pre-owned metals with no minimums, along with fully allocated and segregated storage, means we can offer complete peace-of-mind to investors of all levels. Whether you are a large bullion dealer or someone who requires a safety deposit box, we have the perfect solution for you. We pride ourselves on our professionalism, knowledge, ethics and efficiency.
