

PURR-assic World: Feline Kingdom Takes Over Operation Kindness No-kill Shelter Offering $50 Discount on Cat Adoption Fees

CARROLLTON, Texas (June 27, 2018) – It's midkitten season in North Texas and the hundreds of homeless cats and kittens rescued by Operation Kindness over the last several months are ready for adoption. To help these 100 felines find loving homes, Operation Kindness announces "Purassic World: The Feline Kingdom $50-off Adoption Special."

Thanks to a generous contribution, $5,000 has been donated to Operation Kindness to go toward cat adoption fees at the shelter. For the first 100 cats and kittens adopted, $50 will be discounted from the total adoption fee. The $135 regular adoption fee covers medical exams, spay/neuter surgeries, vaccinations and microchipping, but with the discount, adopters will be able to take home their new best friend for less.

"We're excited about this generous donation, as it will help us get one step closer to finding forever homes for all of the cats and kittens at our shelter during this season," said Jim Hanophy, chief executive officer.

"Purassic World: The Feline Kingdom $50-off Adoption Special" runs from June 29 through July 15.

About Operation Kindness

Founded in 1976, Operation Kindness is the original and largest no-kill shelter in North Texas. Its mission is to care for homeless cats and dogs in a no-kill environment until each is adopted into responsible homes and to advocate humane values and behavior. In the 40-plus years since their inception, Operation Kindness has saved more than 100,000 animals. Annually the shelter assists more than 5,000 dogs and cats, caring for an average of 300 animals daily with another 100-150 animals in foster homes.
