Who:  Community Council of Greater Dallas

What:  The Steel Toes to Stilettos Networking Lunch to educate, equip and empower women on their journey to financial success. Presented by the Community Council of Greater Dallas, the event goal is to identify small changes that, if embraced by many, could make a big difference in the opportunity for women to feel confident and comfortable building and sustaining wealth. The esteemed panel includes economic strategists Kathleen Munger and Victoria Broz, AM/PM Credit Repair CEO Ashley Massengill, WealthWave Women’s Empowerment coach Christina Jones and Toyota IS PMO Deborah West.

When:  Friday, July 19, 2019
11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Where:  The Network Bar – Trinity Groves
331 Singleton Blvd.
Dallas, TX 75212

Cost:  Tickets are limited
General Admission: $25
Vendor Space: $75

Details:  This event is designed to provoke conversation among women by illustrating how small changes in simple, daily habits and routines can result in a boost of confidence, creating positive impact on the opportunities for building and sustaining wealth. Panel speakers will work to familiarize women with tactics and strategies that helped pave paths for success within the financial industry. Each woman is a great representation of leadership and success in the workplace.

Community Council of Greater Dallas works to identify services that are needed in the community and implements action plans working in concert with its member agencies and public sector resources. With a mission of “moving families forward and leaving poverty behind,” the Steel Toe to Stilettos event will provide women a chance to “Get Financially Fit.”
