Teddy and Brooklyn stayed cool at last year's Dog Day Afternoon. This year's festivities will be on Oct. 22.

spin. Organizer Jesse Galvan, who has owned independent music store Music Connection in San Antonio for more than 30 years, is bringing the show back to Dallas. Music junkies can browse and buy vinyl, LPs, 45s, CDs, posters and other music memorabilia.

■ Oct. 22 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Richardson Civic Center, 411 W. Arapaho Road, Richardson. $5. dallasrecordshow.com.

GLOW WARS

It's time for a battle. When the horn sounds, fight your friends in the Glow Arena with water balloons, glow soakers and glow balls. Watch out for the glow foam shooting out of cannons and glow launchers aiming glowing liquid. You'll be glowing in this fight as well, since it's set under black lights. There's also a special section for kids under age 8. The event includes a DJ, vendors, food, drinks and an after-party.

■ Oct. 22 at 7 p.m. at Texas Motor Speedway, 3545 Lone Star Circle, Fort Worth. Check-in is at 4:30 p.m. $50. glowwars.com.

PUMPKINS ON THE PLAZA/GLOW PARTY

FREE There's a Halloween party on the plaza in front of Dallas City Hall, and you're invited. There will be a pumpkin patch, hayrides, face painting, story time, arts and crafts, games, music and food trucks. Wear your spookiest costume for a chance to win a prize. New this year is a costume contest for pets. After dark, stick around for a dance party on the plaza from 7 to 8 p.m. with glow sticks.

■ Oct. 22 from 4 to 8 p.m. at City Hall Plaza, 1500 Marilla St., Dallas. Free. 214-670-8847. dallasparkevents.org.

DOG DAY AFTERNOON

FREE If you love dogs, you'll love Dog Day Afternoon. This fun-for-the-whole-family event is a great way to let your pooch get his wiggles out while he meets a few hundred new friends. Fido can even get a bite of a giant dog cake weighing more than 170 pounds. (Organizers are trying for a world record. Wish 'em luck!) Expect vendors selling pet goodies, food trucks, a puppy kissing booth, and games and prizes. There also will be free microchipping for the first 125 dogs.

■ Oct. 22 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Flag Pole Hill Park, 8100 Doran Circle in Dallas. Free. operationkindness.org.
