

Operation Kindness Hosts Photos with Santa Lifesaving Shelter Invites Saint Nick to Spread Holiday Cheer

WHO: Operation Kindness – the leading lifesaving animal shelter in Texas

WHAT: Providing holiday cheer during the season of gratitude. Operation Kindness is hosting Photos with Santa (Ed Jamison, CEO). Families with dogs who'd like to meet Saint Nick will have a chance to take a picture with the man in red to support the shelter's lifesaving efforts.

WHEN: Saturday, Dec. 11 and Saturday, Dec. 18 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

WHERE: Operation Kindness, located at 3201 Earhart Drive, Carrollton, Texas 75006

DETAILS: Sharing kindness and positivity this festive season, Operation Kindness is inviting Santa (Ed Jamison, CEO, will dress up) to its shelter for an exclusive photo opportunity with local community pets. Families with dogs can bring their furry friends to the leading lifesaving shelter on Saturday, Dec. 11 or Saturday, Dec. 18 and have their picture taken with Santa Claus. Photo opportunities will be provided for guests with a professional photographer. For $20, 10 photos will be taken and given to guests on a flash drive. For families who would like to use their phones, the photographer will take pictures for $15. The event is dog-friendly, and photos will be taken outdoors. Proceeds from the event will benefit Operation Kindness' mission to care for and treat homeless animals until they're ready to find a loving home.
