

Operation Kindness in Urgent Need of Foster Families for Kittens

Kitten Season is Booming Due to Pandemic Halting TNR (Trap, Neuter, Spay, Return) Efforts

WHO: Operation Kindness – a lifesaving animal shelter in North Texas

WHAT: Operation Kindness is currently at full capacity with its kitten intake and is seeking foster families for kittens who need a loving, temporary family until they're old enough to be adopted.

DETAILS: TNR (Trap, Neuter, Spay, Return) efforts across the country were halted due to the pandemic, resulting in a booming kitten season—that time of year when the warmer weather results in the influx of kittens being born. Due to the recent arrival of kittens, Operation Kindness is seeking foster families to help care for kittens that are bottle babies or older. With a high demand of requests for help with kittens, the shelter is turning to the community to help support animals in need.

WHERE: Operation Kindness located at 3201 Earhart Drive Carrollton, Texas 75006

INFO: Call 972-418-7297 or visit www.operationkindness.org/foster/ for more information on how families can support kittens at Operation Kindness.
