

Total Eclipse DFW Unveils Limited Edition Silver Coin Commemorating Historic 2024 Texas Total Solar Eclipse

DALLAS (March 6, 2024) - In anticipation of the upcoming Total Solar Eclipse on April 8, Total Eclipse DFW is proud to announce the release of a limited edition one-ounce .999 fine silver coin, commemorating the Texas Total Eclipse. This exquisite piece celebrates the once-in-a-lifetime event that will plunge more than 1,300 Texas cities into darkness for up to 4 minutes and 28 seconds.

The 2024 Total Solar Eclipse is a significant milestone for the state of Texas, as it marks the first time since 1878 that a Total Solar Eclipse has passed through the state. An estimated 13 million Texans and millions of visitors are expected to witness this awe-inspiring celestial phenomenon.

Total Eclipse DFW's commemorative coin captures the essence of this historic event, featuring a map of Texas with the Path of Totality cutting dramatically across the state with the date, April-8-2024 and the words "Total Solar Eclipse" inscribed. The reverse side showcases a rendering of a Texas Longhorn wearing eclipse glasses amidst solar rays, with the word "Totality" inscribed.

Texas Total Eclipse Commemorative Silver Coin

The introductory sales price for the Texas Total Solar Eclipse commemorative coin is $49.99 plus shipping. Shipping will begin late March.

"We wanted to create a tangible piece of history that Eclipse enthusiasts and collectors alike could cherish for generations to come," said Jo Trizila, creator of Total Eclipse DFW. "This limited-edition silver coin not only serves as a beautiful reminder of the 2024 Total Solar Eclipse but also holds its value as a precious metal."

Texas Eclipse Silver Coin Features:

- 1 Troy Oz .999 Fine Silver
- Limited Run of 5,000 Coins
