View the BADASS® DC-64D Dump Truck at the event from December 6 through December 8

WHO: Autocar, LLC, the proud American manufacturer of premium, purpose-built vocational trucks carrying North America's oldest truck brand, will attend the Mid Atlantic Asphalt Expo and Conference 2022 and display its severe-duty DC-64D dump truck.

WHAT: One of the largest asphalt expos, the Mid Atlantic Asphalt Expo and Conference 2022 is the go-to event for leaders in the asphalt industry. The Virginia Asphalt Association-hosted event brings together over 600 attendees and 70 exhibitors to offer industry experts, decision-makers and manufacturers the opportunity to network and learn.

WHEN: December 6-8, 2022

WHERE: Greater Richmond Convention Center, Richmond, Virginia

INFO: Autocar sets the standard in durability and serviceability for severe-duty vocational trucks. Autocar will spotlight its new severe-duty custom-built conventional dump truck, the DC-64D, at the Mid Atlantic Asphalt Expo and Conference 2022 at floor exhibition J. Attendees will be able to view the relentless workhorse up close and see firsthand its strength and durability. The hand-built DC-64 dump truck is assembled in the U.S. and custom-engineered for the toughest jobs in concrete and construction applications.

Autocar's DC-64 dump truck features:

- The only 325-degree all-around driver visibility, with 30 percent more glass than the industry competition
- The only Class 8 vocational truck with rear-corner wrap-around windows to improve the rearward view
- The most durable cab structure in the industry with its all-welded steel cab construction
- The only vocational truck with frame rail material with a yield strength of 160,000 PSI, RBM 3.91 lbs. 24 percent stronger than industry standards
- Every DC-64D is built with dual Sheppard M100 steering gears, 112-inch BBC and up to 50 degrees wheel cut, allowing the driver easy steering effort and maneuverability
- A 7-inch driver information smart display to minimize driver distraction and help technicians quickly get drivers back on the road after maintenance
- Best-in-class 24/7 direct factory support
- Direct-to-customer sales support with experts in each vocation
- Best-in-class routing and clipping
- Unmatched electrical serviceability with its intelligent electrical system for easy diagnostics and repairs
- Easy-open gas-strut-assisted hood

When it comes to construction and asphalt work, Autocar knows that customers need a truck that can take on any challenge, and that is the DC-64D dump truck.
