

Dillon Gage Metals 2016 Holiday Coin Picks Gold and Silver Collectibles Make Meaningful Holiday Gifts

ADDISON, Texas (Dec. 13, 2015)—With Christmas just around the corner, Dillon Gage Metals is ready to make this year's holiday-themed picks for gold and silver coins. Many sovereign mints including the U.S. Mint, Royal Canadian Mint and Perth Mint offer specifically themed holiday options and these selections can make cherished Christmas presents or even stocking stuffers.

"Most people don't think about gifting gold or silver coins for Christmas, but the pricing is reasonable and the satisfaction is all but guaranteed," said Terry Hanlon, president of Dillon Gage Metals.

Two particular coins made the list of recommendations from Dillon Gage Metals this year. Pictured above is a 2016 edition Merry Christmas Santa Claus 999 Fine 1 oz. Silver Round. Below is the Royal Canadian Mint's 2016 1 oz. Silver Superman Shield Coin (BU).

While Dillon Gage Metals is not a coin retailer, the international precious metals wholesaler is happy to provide useful tips for buying coins to be gifted in 2016:

- Keep your recipient in mind. With such a wide selection of coins, buyers can usually locate a specific theme for gift recipients.
- The purchase of a collector coin set is a great way to spark a lifelong passion for collecting and investing in precious metals in the younger generation.
- Buying products from well-known and reputable dealers is advisable. Do some research before you decide to buy any gold or silver coins.

Consider the gift of gold or silver coins and collector sets this holiday season. A memorable gift of precious metals provides the thoughtfulness and intrinsic value attributes not seen in many other options.
